Fight The Fade

The 24th of October
As the weather gets colder
The trees lose their leaves
In an attempt to start over
As spring gets closer
All things are new
Can I be just like You?

Can I become
What I once was
That innocence
That's been long lost
I wanna shed this man
Like the leaves
And change myself
Just like the seasons change

I see the ground getting softer
The sun's getting warmer
And life's breaking through
I'm feeling stronger
Because winter is over
This season, I'm new
This season, I'm new
