

The End is Near

Fight The Fade

It's all around you
Tell me now what do you see
It's all around you
Tell me now everything
Their bodies will burn
So I run to the fire
Shotguns can't save you now
You're time is expired

The consequence reflects
The decision you made
Used to be a free man
Now you're a slave
You're family is gone
You're city is on fire
As it turns out
Truth is not relative to
Your sinful desire
The end is near
