

What's Left

Fight The Fade

My picture perfect life
Is not as it seems
Once you start to count the cost
Of living the life of your dreams

If you look behind my highlight reel
You'll see how empty I feel

I've poured out what's left of me
And I feel like giving in
You felt like a part of me
But now it's wearing thin

You might think I have all the answers
But I'm just playing by ear
The truth of the matter is
We're all surrounded by fear

I've poured out what's left of me
And I feel like giving in
You felt like a part of me
But now it's wearing thin

As empty as it seems
You'll never get all of me
Because what's left of me
Is stronger than you've ever seen

Who I am
Is not determined by what you see
Your image
Is not my behind the scenes
