Spotlights are roaming The show will begin I had never thought But don't give my circus away I hope it ends before you know me I've lost it completely My faith is lost again I'd say I'm tired of this place and I want to go Riding my carousel They can never tell I'm spinning and turning Always revolving You should have seen it Where were you? I needed a stage To walk all over you That's better I'm throwing my three ring away And I can hear you say I'm tired of this place I'm tired of this place and then I think of Riding my carousel They can never tell Close all of the doors Lock me away I'm happy I'm here So let me stay
