

Shudder

Finger Eleven

So sad to everyone
did not occur to you wake up an empty shell someone to crawl into

Dead days refuse to dream the blanket still asleep concealing every flaw till you uncover me

Could it be that i'm fading far away straight out of it

No truth i can confirm no truth that i can sense passing time i can't recall the truth it surfaces

Open eyes open heart
open up and fall apart

I'll be that burden you bear
