

Drops of time

Finley

I search with ardour
A way to analyze
Clean up my dirty mind
Obsessed by unusual words
Grudge and envy
Intolerance and vice
Regret for a choice
That i can't understand
Bad thoughts resound in my head

Why do you offer
Another hand to me
When you should better spend
This useless fuckin' day
I've betrayed and crushed
My firm, unbroken faith
I've lost control, I'm sick
Nothing you won't change,
Nothing you won't change

You're losing drops of time
You just can't bring me back to life
You're losing drops of time
You just can't show me how to rewind

Wasted time
Because the man that I was,
now isn't here
Is disappeared
Wasted time
because the only thing that I can do Is avoiding the risks of a lifetime lifetime lifetime, lifetime

You're losing drops of time
You just can't bring me back to life
You just can't show me how to rewind
