

Don't Tell Me Why

Firefall

Don't tell me why
We both know you would lie
You have been gone too long
And all the feelings died

Don't tell me why, don't tell me why
Don't tell me why, don't tell me why
Don't tell me why, I don't want to know

You hurt inside
Well that can't be denied
You bring it on yourself
You barely have to try

Don't tell me why, don't tell me why
Don't tell me why, don't tell me why
Don't tell me why, I don't want to know

I know what you've been up to
I couldn't care less at all (no)
It's the same thing over again
You're headed for a fall

Please don't tell me stories
Do not tax your brain
This conversation's over
You are gone again

Don't tell me why, don't tell me why
Don't tell me why, don't tell me why
Don't tell me why
Don't tell me why
Don't tell me why
