

Dreamers

Firefall

Always reaching for the sun
I know I'm not the only one
My life is a song in the air
And even though the things I hear
Seen more awesome than my fears
I know that the night will soon appear

Then lost in clouds that turn to smiles
Visions fall upon my mind
Pain is a word left behind
For here my life just carries on
Without the hurt when all is gone
Here my song belongs to
Dreamers-Dreamers-Dreamers

Though the mists of forgotten time
Faint and haunting in my mind
A voice seems to whisper in my ear
And even though the light is dim
A glow ascends from deep within
Urging the dreams ever nearer

Then lost in clouds that turn to smiles
Visions fall upon my mind
For here my life just carries on
Without the hurt when all is gone
Here my song belongs to
Dreamers-Dreamers-Dreamers
