

Left Rustle

Fireside

You said you didn't want to see me no more
You told me what you hated me for
I understood, and I agreed
You went, you took it all for granted and you got what you wanted
I saw it and it got to me
You blow the candle out and I can't stop you
I read, what you wrote in your book

Because of everything you took
I know I went too far
But it's just all that you are
But its not that I can't cope
And I did all that I could
I did more than I should
And I tried to think
But I'm on the brink and I tried to think
