No Fear

There's a storm coming But there will be no rain Bringing clouds of anger From a thousand years of pain

For some of us there is no shelter From the change in the weather It will find you wherever you run So if you're down for what's right There's no reason to hide For you there is no fear People dying and crying The sound of shattered dreams Drowning the voice of the future With negativity

For some of us there is no answer To the change in the weather Cloud's will cover the sun So if you're down for what's right There is no reason to run For you there is no fear

Run Run Run Run But you can't hide Run Run Run But you can't hide From the storm

Lightning from the sky Will strike you down I have no fear I have no fear

There's a hurt coming But who will feel the pain And the tears of sadness Falling down like rain

Run Run Run Run But you can't hide Run Run Run But you can't hide From the storm

Lightning from the sky Will strike you down I have no fear I have no fear

There's a storm coming But there will be no rain
