

All I Ask

Fisher

Could you be the one,
to make me fall?
I am always running,
will you follow?
Catch me if you dare.
Tame me, and I'll never go.

And all I ask
is that you love me.
And all I dream
is that you'll love me.

And should you ever cry,
I'll drink your tears.
I would kill your enemies,
walk into a burning house to save you, yeah.

And all I ask
is that you love me.
And all I dream
is that you'll love me.
Oh, to dream.

And all I ask
is that you love me.
And all I dream
is that you'll love me.
And if I ever fall again.
