

So Much

Fisher

He wants to
I want too much
He says he's taking his time

When I hold him
And he holds back
It hurts me that I don't mind

Chorus:

He has only so much
He can give up for me
And I have only so much
And that's not enough but
Everything is good
Everything is fine for now
La da da la da la da da

She don't cry
I don't cry
The past won't let us let go

When she holds me
And I hold back
If she minds I'll never know

I have only so much
I can give up for her
And she gives only so much
And that's not enough but
Everything's good
Everything's fine

For now
For now

We have only so much
We can give up for love
And we give only so much
And that's not enough but
Everything is good
Everything is fine
For now
