

Breaking the Mirror

Fit for a King

Born under pressure
Forged in the flames
I fought through hell
Every single day
Rebound with purpose
Rebound in faith
I know my place
No, I'm not afraid

I'm letting go of my failures
Erasing the anchor
The demons behind my eyes
I'm letting go of the past now
Done fighting my way out
I'm breaking the mirror down

Through my circle I have found, victory
Through this hatred I will end, end the suffering
No more doubt, no more fear, no more suffering
No more doubt, no more fear
You'll never kill the flame in me

I'm letting go of my failures
Erasing the anchor
The demons behind my eyes
I'm letting go of the past now

Done fighting my way out
I'm breaking the mirror down

(Hey, hey, hey)
(Hey, hey, hey)
You tried to crush my soul, you failed
I conquered and prevailed
You'll never break me

No more doubt
No more fear
No more doubt
No more fear
You'll never kill the flame in me

I'm letting go of my failures
Erasing the anchor
The demons behind my eyes
I'm letting go of the past now
Done fighting my way out
I'm breaking the mirror down
I'm letting go of the past now
Done fighting my way out
I'm breaking the mirror down

(Hey, hey, hey)
(Hey, hey, hey)
I'm breaking the mirror
