

Debts of the Soul

Fit for a King

I gave my pain to the wind
Everything keeps falling apart
I gave my pain to the wind
But heaven only knows where I've been

I gave my pain to the wind
Everything keeps falling apart
I gave my pain to the wind
But heaven only knows where I've been

Will you take my burdens, will you wear my scars?
Will you take my burdens, will you wear my scars?

I gave my pain to the wind,
Everything keeps falling apart
Raise me from the dead
Heaven only knows where I've been
