

Eyes To See

Fit for a King

It's all a matter of time until I find you again
My life is such a waste
Going back and forth
Through the thoughts in my head
I need to get a grip
How can I believe a single word they're saying?
I've been here a thousand times

Show something
I just need a sign
Give me something real
Show something
I just need a sign
Give me something for my eyes to see

And without a voice you speak to me
And open my eyes to what it means to believe
No more questioning

I ran away from everything I need
You kept your word and stood right next to me
I ran away from everything I need
I ran away!
(Away from everything)

Back and forth
The struggle for my soul continues
This war will never be won
As long as I question my existence
When will I learn?
When will I learn?

Worn down by my self-inflicted struggle
I need to let go
If seeing is believing
Then give me eyes to see

I ran away from everything I need
You kept your word and stood right next to me
I ran away from everything I need
I ran away!
(Away from everything)
I ran away from everything I need
You kept your word and stood right next to me
I ran away from everything I need
I ran away!
(Away from everything)
