

The Devil (Inside)

Fit For Rivals

Take my hand, you murderer
We've met before, but now I'm your prisoner
And the shadows fall on my hand
Burying me in the sand

Cause I lost myself to the devil inside me

I'm so incomplete, I lost myself to somebody else
Woah oh
Crawl inside of me, you unwanted guest
You dark passenger

Yeah
Woah
Woah

Drag me down through the dirt
We've met before, but now you make it hurt, woah
And the shadows fall on my hand
Burying me in the sand

Cause I lost myself to the devil inside me

I'm so incomplete, I lost myself to somebody else
Woah oh
Crawl inside of me, you unwanted guest
You dark passenger
I'm so incomplete, I lost myself to somebody else
Woah oh
Crawl inside of me, you unwanted guest
You dark passenger
Woah oh

Go inside of my
Go inside of my
Go inside of my
Go inside of my
Go inside of my
Go inside of my head
I lost myself to the devil inside
