

One Way Road

Five Times August

So I'm giving what you want
But I can't get my hands on what you've got
You big teaser, playing games
But I can play them too, I'm just the same

You're moving on, I see it
But my eyes, they don't believe it
Cause inside I feel there ain't nothing more real so

I've been waiting and I want you to know
Your love is irreplaceable inside of my emotions
But this falling is getting old
So bye-bye love
It's a one way road

Knocked down and thrown back
I'm losing my mind and my plan of attack
So reload or explode
It's getting pretty crazy cause I want you to know

I'm moving on, you'll see it
Then your heart will stop receiving
All the things I'd do if we weren't through but

I've been waiting and I want you to know
Your love is irreplaceable inside of my emotions
But this falling is getting old
So bye-bye love
It's a one way road

So anyway
What you say
It doesn't mean much to me now
What I need
Is just to be
Everything I am without you
So I guess you lose

I've been waiting and I want you to know
Your love is irreplaceable inside of my emotions
But this falling is getting old
So bye-bye love
It's a one way road
It's a one way
It's a one way
It's a one way road
