See, I see, picture the world in harmony Before it's too late So close to runnin' out of time Soon it it'll be judgement day And, Lord, I pray Your mercy on mankind Earn your ticket to get up to Heaven Maybe Hell if you don't get yourself together You might be sorry, but it's your turn to go soon And I know they know better We are all soldiers of God and gotta job Connect to them souls He want you to spread The Word about Him Simply, that's easy for you to pay the toll What more could we ask for? We all are whether you like it or not We get a chance to profit in life And living on Earth You're gonna get put on the spot once in awhile But I know that you humble heart No doubt you'll be tested Even halted by demons Stressin', want to get you arrested (If I'm not workin' this) You keep it real true with yourself and family Gotta plan this good and ready They hand me peace, much love to the G's Who real understand me

Give us this day our daily bread And lead us no in temptation But deliver us from the evil Amen
