

Got A Feeling

Flickerstick

I got a feeling, it's a feeling
That you'll never understand
It's like a rush to my heart
That I hope never ends
But it all depends
It's a power such a power
A sensation that is changing how I feel about you
It's all brand new
The fight is far from over
There's nothing left to prove

Cause I'm in charge
Let's just sail away tonight

Cause when you
Get what you want
Then you make it
Don't take it away
If you break it
Don't save it
Just run away
Just run away
Just run away

So can't you see that we're the same
Because there's no one else to blame
The only one's who can handle
Their share of the pain
It's just a game

I thought I'd never get away
Another trip another day
I think I've seen you before
It's all the same the friends they come and go
The years just fade away

So step in line
Cause we're breaking out this time

Get what you want
Then you make it
Don't take it away
If you break it
Don't save it
Don't fake it

Get what you want
Then you make it
Don't take it away
If you break it
Don't save it
Just run away
Just run away
Just run away

Got a feeling
It's a feeling

That you'll never understand
I couldn't live without the rush
It's a must
Don't you break out
Don't fake out
Don't sell out
Don't sell out
Don't sell out
You compromise every word you say

Get what you want
Then you make it
Don't take it away
If you break it
Don't save it
Don't fake it

Get what you want
Then you make it
Don't take it away
If you break it
Don't save it
Just run away
Just run away
Just run away
Just run away
