

The Invitation

Floater

Am I getting through?
Am I losing you?
Just give me some little sign

You're drifting out to sea...
You can't do this to me
I gave you all that was mine, Yeah...

Do you see
That you were always alone
Until you befriended me?

How you've grown...
Just take a look at yourself
The stranger has found a home

And I could leave this place
And I could almost fly...
If I could only just reach the window...

One, two, three, four...

You had sex on television
Watched a clock
Did you never notice that your life has stopped?
Changing
Think I'm arranging
In some thin little ways
And you cry...
Take me away sister
Won't you leave me astray sister?
Was my taste not as sweet...
As your tongue wanted?

You need me, we're the same

You need me, we're the same
You need me, we're the same
You need...

Yes, it's a shock
But trust me, you'll feel better after

I see- I see you must have lost your way
But I can bring you back again

Go through the sky again
Breath, open your eyes
Feel your skin grow cold...
I can bring you back again

Be yourself again

I was so kind...
Went nearly out of my mind
But I was thinking of you the whole time

And I gave you all that was mine

I gave you all that was mine

I gave you all that was mine

I gave you all that was mine

I gave you all that was mine

I gave you...

I gave you...

I gave you

Come back to me

Come back to me

Come back to me

To come back to me
