

Background of Malfunction

Flux of Pink Indians

Man created greed a choice of
Who to feed a choice to live or die a choice to Smile or cry a love to give to all to make
To beg or crawl a life there and the plans
A pass to say was mans inventions
Like the bomb a device to stop what's wrong a Chance to create a life similar
To the last road to follow straight animal
To fill the plate death that is so sad
Rituals that are not mad like eating
What is dead I thought that made man sad
Obviously not the same breed animals
To be tame so man can show the fists
Cos only man exists
Lion eats a man man invades
It's land man prods it with a gun
Always proving man has won
Lion eats all but shoes big business on the news shocks
Horrors family's stuffing all the bleeding meat in
What a savage it ate a man
I won't feed the lion's in the zoo again"
"This steak is a lovely piece of meat
I fancy a bit of rabbit next week"
"Come on Thomas eat it up
Sometimes I don't think you were worth the fuck!"
