

The Scream of the Thunder

Fogalord

Into the night follow the light the fog in the silence
Into the day the power prevails
The warrior is rising Into the dark follow the mark the seal of the might We'll ride so high to the sky...
We'll fly!

The loud scream of the thunder is guiding the storm of steel Follow the loud scream of the thunder towards this magic land Follow the fog, straight to the victory Carry your sword right to the flames Dreaming of peace, proud, full of glory
This is my story, epic and true

Into the storm you can reborn strong and immortal Hammers and stones breaking the bones lead our legions

Bravery calls, enemies fall over the land

This is the heroes' age!

You can cry, you can cry forever
You can fight, once and for all (FogLord) ...you must fight: once and for all!
