

Fool's Hall Of Fame

Foghat

When my picture's in a frame
In the fool's hall of fame
There'll be no one you can blame but me

She was mean and so unkind
A two faced woman with a one track mind
I was so blind, I could not see

I believed all her lies and bad alibis
Yes and everyone was wise, but me
Now I see that I've been mislead
About everything she said
Call me a fool and I'll agree

When my picture's in a frame
In the fool's hall of fame
There'll be no one you can blame but me

She was mean and so unkind
A two faced woman with a one track mind
I was so blind I could not see
