Hugin & Munin

Folkearth

The whole world wide, every day Fly Hugin and Munin I worry lest Hugin should fall in fight Yet more I fear for Munin [Taken from Grimnismol:] Four wings spreaded in the northern sk V Sent out everyday to gather knowledge Far beyond the glance of dawn Return with the shadows to the land of the norsemen And over the Oden's shoulder Tell what their eyes saw And over the Odin's shoulder their ears Become Odin's ears All-father I flown to the west and I saw The dragons sail, beats of the waves All-father I flown to the west and I saw Woods and fjords beyond the nine worlds Father of the god of the thunder Whose Mjollnir guards our folk We will ride the skies of the whole world wide
