

Diamonds of the Night

Forgotten Silence

"...at the night of dark gust of wind, they came to me - the unknown faces... under the wings of the bats and rats paws... we're laughing together. The only candle is lighting my room, but I can see them so clearly... within sound of incredible melodies... the unknown faces..... The apocalypse is raging outside but here we don't feel any rain, any wind.... Dhereia tells a myth of his childhood... and strange music sounds.... They've changed my life..The diamonds of the night, everything is too mad.. they are the diamonds of the night they're shining in the dark.. hear them!! Bahracnain is taking a moon harp and begins to sing slowly.. her shrill beautiful voice.. I see them, I hear them.. the flames of Eternity are creeping into my eyes... Neapoa is reciting about some... It's too late to return to Earth, I'm flying like a flag in the air, my eyes are closing and me.. . my soul is taken by shining in the darkness... hear them... diamonds of the night...
