

Neverending Journey

Forgotten Silence

They're slowly floating - the eternal skyships... silent great wisdom of the Other side..... within awfully monophonic roll of tympani.... they are looking at us... and knows...!!!!!! There on the northern side the shine is lighting... Aman is setting out on his march... a triumphal march across the sky... and eternal messengers are walking in cold air!!..... the air is getting warm... morning star is shining... and clouds, clouds are on their NEVERENDING JOURNEY.... Moving sky, roots of heaven are shaking!! A mighty hammer is destroying the sky, creepy kingdom of a crucified beggar... clouds are flying to announce arrival of the new empire!!! Above horizon, behind the morning forest, their neverending journey begins... The whole countryside looks like a house of cards now!!! Morning clouds!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!.....
