Hung Up on You

Fountains of Wayne

While I down Kentucky bourbon I am waiting for a call And the moon and stars tonight Are playing shadows on the wall

With the moon the way it is, dear Would you answer out of spite Or are you feeling lonely tonight

Cause I remember last time
We were out under the stars
Driving crooked down the highway
Drinking beer in roadside bars

And now and then I wonder Why this painful memory Can never find its way to you from me

And I can't dial the phone just now
Even though I know your number
Can't bring my broken heart to be untrue
Like you did today
You'll say goodbye the same old way
Ever since you hung up on me
I'm hung up on you

Well the house I'm ringing up from Is a half a mile from you But with the reception I'm getting Might as well be Timbuktu

And behind the door of your home
Is a strange and foreign land
Where you speak a language I don't understand

And I can't dial the phone just now
Even though I know your number
Can't bring my broken heart to be untrue
Like you did today
You'll say goodbye the same old way
Ever since you hung up on me
I'm hung up on you

Now I'm going down to Jimmy's bar Like a thousand other times With an appetite for poison And a suitcase full of dimes

And I'll wait there by the payphone With one hundred other guys With those sorry hung-up teardrops in our eyes

And I can't dial the phone just now
Even though I know your number
Can't bring my broken heart to be untrue
Like you did today
You'll say goodbye the same old way

Ever since you hung up on me I'm hung up on you
