

Burden

Foy Vance

Let me carry your burden
If something's not right I will let you know
Like the paint that's drying on a heart that's poor
Let me carry your burden

Get you back on a high when you're feeling low
When the weight's too heavy but you won't let go

Come to me my brother and I will sit with you a while Pretty soon I'll see you smiling, you know you will
No matter how much you're hurting right now
You know that everything will change in time
So let me carry your burden

Let me carry your burden
when your mouth's on fire but your mind is cold and you're fanning flames that won't keep you warm

Come to me my brother and I will sit with you a while
Pretty soon I'll see you smiling, you know you will
No matter how much you're hurting right now
You know that everything will change in time
Let me carry your burden, O brother of mine

Let me carry your burden
Come tomorrow you'll be right as rain
It will quench your fire and wash away your stain

Come to me my brother and I will sit with you a while
Pretty soon I'll see you smiling, you know you will
No matter how much you're hurting right now
You know that everything will change in time
Oh I just might see another light
Got no dog here in the fight
I can carry your burden, O brother of mine
