

I'm Coming Over

Foy Vance

Now that it's over
I'll say what I want
Ever since that night in October
I have been haunted
And time is a healer
So I took my time
But the thought of you has got me reeled in
It already feels right

I know it's late
But I'm coming over
Will you still be awake
If I knock on your door
I hope that you pray
For a love to come along and comfort you
I was afraid but not anymore, no

I'm coming over
I'm coming over

Well how could I say it
When I knew I was going
I remember us dancing
To the Wee Small Hours of the Morning
Ol' Blue Eyes was crooning
Your sultry ascending
And lately I've been thinking
Is that where it ends

I know it's late
Oh, but I'm coming over
Will you still be awake
If I knock on your door
I hope that you pray
For a love to come along and comfort you
I was afraid but not anymore, no

I'm coming over
I'm coming over

And now we're together
Lovers and friends
We can be unfettered
Again and again
We can only get stronger
Through heartache and gloom
And every time you see me leave now
Know that I'm coming home

I know it's late
But I'm coming over
Will you still be awake
If I knock on your door
I hope that you pray
For a love to come along and comfort you
I was afraid but not anymore

I'm coming over
Oh, I'm coming over
Yeah I'm coming over
I'm coming over
