

Pain Never Hurt Me Like Love

Foy Vance

The world is dull,
ever since you've been gone.
Well I've travelled the world,
only to track you down.

I had to stop, falling in love,
cos all that I got, was never enough.
And I found, baby, when push comes to shove,
Pain never hurt me like love, did.
Pain never hurt me like love.

Ooh pretty woman,
Oh to hold you in my arms.
Had to give you to someone,
someone who could cause you harm.

I have to stop, falling in love,
cos all that I got, was never enough.
And I found, baby, when push comes to shove,
Pain never hurt me like love, did.
Pain never hurt me like love.

Oooh oooh ooooooooooh oooh x2

I have to stop, falling in love,
cos all that I got, was never enough.
And I found, baby, when push comes to shove,
Pain never hurt me like love, did.
Pain never hurt me like love, did.
Pain never hurt me like love, did.
Pain never hurt me like love.
