

Nowhere To Run

Fozzy

I'm buried alive like a landmine
On a deadline
No easy way out (No easy way out)
I've been under the eyes of a spotlight
Only do or die
There's no safe in this sound (I knew it now)

It's a hard way out of hell
And I did it to myself
I'm at the point of no return

Where do I go, go from here
Hold my ground or disappear
Nowhere to run, nowhere to run, oh
Now that I'm all out of time
One last stand to make it right
Nowhere to run, nowhere to run
Nowhere to run

Staring down the barrel of a gun
Nowhere to run, nowhere to run
I can feel it burning in my lungs
Nowhere to run, nowhere to run
Nowhere to run

All of my deeds catching up with me
No sympathy
Here where I belong (Here where I belong)
Out of the beast that's in front of me
Let the mirror speak
Reflecting who's wrong (It's always me)

It's a hard way out of hell
And I did it to myself
I'm at the point of no return
Before I burn

Where do I go, go from here
Hold my ground or disappear
Nowhere to run, nowhere to run, oh
Now that I'm all out of time
One last stand to make it right
Nowhere to run, nowhere to run
Nowhere to run

Staring down the barrel of a gun
Nowhere to run, nowhere to run
I can feel it burning in my lungs
Nowhere to run, nowhere to run
Nowhere to run

It's a hard road out of hell
And I've done it to myself
Even God can't save me now

Where do I go, go from here
Hold my ground or disappear
Nowhere to run, nowhere to run, oh
Now that I'm all out of time
One last stand to make it right
Nowhere to run, nowhere to run
Nowhere to run

Staring down the barrel of a gun
Nowhere to run, nowhere to run
I can feel it burning in my lungs
Nowhere to run, nowhere to run
Nowhere to run, nowhere to run
