

One Crazy Anarchist

Fozzy

One crazed anarchist
He's ready to blow
Grenade in his pocket
And he's ready to throw

Finger on the trigger
And he's ready to pull
It's time to deliver
And his docket is full

How did my love just fade away?
Faith and hope have gone astray
I can't run away from the beast
RIP the scab and set it free
It's the killer in me

One crazed anarchist
One crazed anarchist
One crazed anarchist
One crazed anarchist

One crazed anarchist
He's rolling the dice
A blade in his pocket
And he's ready to slice

Bullets in the chamber
And his targets are picked
Sights on the danger
And his quarry is hit

How did my love just fade away?
Faith and hope have gone astray
I can't run away from the beast
RIP the scab and set it free
It's the killer in me

One crazed anarchist
One crazed anarchist
One crazed anarchist
One crazed anarchist

No rules to live by
No laws apply
Voiceless screams
To say goodbye

How did my love just fade away?
Faith and hope have gone astray
I can't run away from the beast
RIP the scab and set it free
It's the killer in me

One crazed anarchist
One crazed anarchist
One crazed anarchist
One crazed anarchist (It's the killer in me)

One crazed anarchist
One crazed anarchist
One crazed anarchist
