

Say You Ever

Framing Hanley

Say you ever gave a damn
Don't ever say you ever gave a damn
Or I'll expose you
Say you never'd understand
Just say that no one would ever understand
If this is where we're at
At least present the facts
Let's begin

Dress me in a crown of thorns
I'm in contempt at the cross
Heaven knows you'd
Dress me up in uniform
As a testament to what it costs
If it's your after-all
I hope the stain resolves

But I'm convinced

One day you'll reap what you've sown
One day you'll reach the end alone
And I hope the feelin'
Is what you were seekin'

But you were feigned from the start
You can't change who you are
Ooh-ooh-ooh-ooh

One day you'll reap what you've sown
One day you'll reach the end alone
One day you'll reap what you've sown
One day you'll reach your end alone
