You on your cell phone wasnt at your place
The stupid things you do, you gotta be a fool, you took my love for granted
Now I'm takeing it back from you

How could you straight up lie I thought you were by my side
Now I know what to think of you
Heres two words I'd like to say to you

I'm not going be your ho
You can keep your ring
Tough shit I see your full of it
I'm not going to be your bitch I don't care about your bling

I must admit I got caught up in your game to the night we were makeing love
And you called someone elses name
What the fuck whos the bitch that your sleeping with I really g

Cause somebody else gotta feel it

[Chorus x2]

Just to think I thaught I loved you what the hell was on my min
