

It's not who you are
It's who you wanna be, to me
It's not who you are
It's who you wanna be, to me

I can never know your pain
But if you're willing to explain
Been in line, but me
I'm numb enough to try and
Comprehend the saddest world in which you came

But no matter how you try
Everything you describe
Trouble, situations
Trapped behind is your protection
Made it easier to run and hide

So take a shot
It don't matter what you haven't got
Soldier 'round a baby
Change your fly
Nothing's fly but you won't buy love

It's not who you are
It's who you wanna be, to me
It's not who you are
It's who you wanna be, to me
It's not who you are

It's who you wanna be, to me
It's not who you are
It's who you want, it's who you want
It's who you want, it's who you want
You want to be, yeah
It's who you want be
To me
It's who you want
It's who you want
It's who you want
Who you want to be
It's who you want to be
It's who you want to be
