

All I See

Frankmusik

When I called your name, there was silence
And it's making my world way too quiet
When I thought we knew
All our lefts and we have our rights, yeah, no
Matter where we turn, it just ends in a fight, and you
Said one day that you would run outta time for me, for me, for me

So, has the day come
When we can change anything, no?
Now, I don't wanna run
'Cause that's no fun

When your love is all I see
(When your love is all I see
When your love is all I see)
When your love is all I need
(All I need)
Then it don't matter what you say
I'm loving you, yeah, anyway
'Cause when your love is all I see
Then it's all I need

Don't try to tell me hope's a hopeless word
When I'm hoping that I can change your mind
I know my intentions are all absurd
For in the end there's tears in your eyes
And while you're thinking that we're all out of chances
I'll be wishing on stars up above
Well, how we gonna mend if we keep sitting on fences? My love

So, has the day come
When we can change anything, no?
Now, I don't wanna run
'Cause that's no fun

When your love is all I see
(When your love is all I see
When your love is all I see)
Then your love is all I need
(All I need)
And it don't matter what you say
I'm loving you, yeah, anyway
And when your love is all I see

So, has the day come
When we can change anything, no?
While there's nowhere left to run
If we're done

And you said one day
And you said one day
And you said one day...
And you said one day
And you said one day
And you said one day...

When your love is all I see

(When your love is all I see
When your love is all I see)
When your love is all I need
(All I need)
Then it don't matter what you say
'Cause I'm loving you, yeah, anyway
When your love is all, is all I need, yeah

It's all I need
'Cause I'm loving you, yeah, anyway
When your love is all I see, yeah
It's all I need
