

Alone

Frankmusik

Oh I hate life
Cos' I hate regrets
Cos' I don't know
No I can't know what's best
But how I wish the past
Was just a place that I could respect

Now you've got this front seat
Where I lose my mind and I'm
Searching for a button
That'll just rewind
All the hardest parts where I fell
I'm looking for a future
Down a wishing well
Is it easier to define
Something in the present
That could change my life
And you said

I'll never do this alone
I've already found my way home
No I'll never do this alone
When I've already found my way home

Baby you can
Go and take me there
Oh just go and
Go and take me there
Oh just go and
Go and take me there
Oh just go and
Go on if you dare
Oh just go and
Go and take me there
Oh just go and
Go and take me there
Oh just go and
Go and take me there
Oh just go and
Take me home

Oh I try I try to change everything
I still got poison
That lingers within
Well what's the price I got to pay
To slay this pain away
You know I better
Kill my demons underground
Maybe if you help me
I'll be safe and sound
Cos' I feel like I'm out of time
Even though what's hurting me
Is my design

And it shares all my fatal flaws
Like living in a castle only made of straw
But you said I'll never do this alone

I've already found my way home
No I'll never do this alone

Baby you can
Go and take me there
Oh just go and
Go and take me there
Oh just go and
Go and take me there
Oh just go and
Go on if you dare
Oh just go and
Go and take me there
Oh just go and
Go and take me there
Oh just go and
Go and take me there
Oh just go and
Oh just go

No I'll never do this alone
I've already found my way home
No I'll never do this alone
When I've already found my way home

Take me home
And just take me home
No I don't have to do this alone
You can take me home
No I don't have to do this alone
