

Day Break

Frankmusik

Don't turn back now
Just keep going on
It's always darkest before the dawn
Can't you see
Nothing's going wrong

Don't let it pass
Don't let it pass you by
You know all this could be over in a blink of an eye
We're all scared
But it ain't no alibi

Can I give you something
Can I give you hope
Can I give you sunshine to stop you letting go
Letting go, letting go, yeah

Can I give you
Can I give you
Can I give you something

Can I give you
Can I give you
Can I give you something

Don't turn back now

Don't turn back now

Can I give you something
Can I give you hope
Can I give you sunshine to stop you letting go
Letting go, letting go, yeah
