

Dear Nicole

Frankmusik

Dear Nicole I got your messages
But I can't begin to find the strength to reply
And dear Nicole
Things were so different
Cos' when we first spoke I knew each word and every line
But seasons changed us
Now our shameless love
Just takes a bow

And my hearts given up in stuttgart
And my hearts given up in stuttgart
A town of little silhouettes
And many more regrets
Of balconies
Where we would crush our dreams
Or so it seems
Right now

Dear Nicole I'm really fixing up
Cos time is just filling in the cracks that you left behind
And dear Nicole I found your door was shut
But there's only one possession that I wanted to find yeah
Now I know seasons changed us
But our shameless love
Just took a bow

My hearts given up in stuttgart
And my hearts given up in stuttgart
A town of little silhouettes
And many more regrets
On balconies
Where we would crush our dreams
Or so it seems

My heart in stuttgart
A town of little silhouettes
And many more regrets
Of balconies
Where we would crush our dreams
Or so it seems
My heart in stuttgart
A town of little silhouettes
And many more regrets of balconies
Where we would crush our dreams
Or so it seems
Right now
Right now
