

Fled

Frankmusik

I hold back from checking up
I've tried to stay close before
I know you want me to find out
Without saying a word at all
But I found this thing
Called self respect
And use it on the internet
Cos you won't find me looking up your name
To see your new man

I wish you'd remember
I don't wanna be your last regret
I wish you'd remember
I bet you got a new boy to forget
I pictured us inside your bed
But I see him lay there instead
I wish you'd remember
Before before before
Before you fled
Before before you fled

I jumped ship so many times
I'm picking splinters out my feet
You had your sword put to my back
Till I admitted my defeat
So my birthday comes
And my biggest gift
Was to call you up and to finish this
Yeah you got the looks
I suppose that's good
If no one knows you

I wish you'd remember
I don't wanna be your last regret
I wish you'd remember
I bet you got a new boy to forget
I pictured us inside your bed
But I see him lay there instead
I wish you'd remember
Before before before
Before you fled
Before before you fled

Oh before you fled
Oh before you fled

I wish you'd remember
I don't wanna be your last regret
I wish you'd remember
I bet you got a new boy to forget

But I see him lay there instead
