

Know My Name

Frankmusik

I sing out loud but they don't even hear me now
I've done a lot but I'm done and out
They're still trying to tell me it's all over
But damned if I'm listening
Why? I'm defined by my mistakes
It's okay if I'm too late
Hold up, cause why would I hesitate
To ignore it like I did, don't mention it

Cause I'm gonna keep on going
Even if you never know my name, ever know my name
Cause it's not my first time
And it's not gonna be my last no no, be my last no no

Fight 'em, but there's no contenders
Now I remember
I'm by myself, by myself, alright
You're here today, gone tomorrow
And there's a story they'll never know
But I don't think I even mind

Oh, it's not a competition
Oh, it's like some kind of mission
But I don't even know the, know the rules oh
And why do I make choices in a world of voices
That will tell me that I did it wrong

Cause I'm gonna keep on going
Even if you never know my name, ever know my name
Cause it's not my first time
And it's not gonna be my last no no, be my last no no

Could it be time to give up?
The pressure's really getting high
But when I take a minute, I realize

Cause I'm gonna keep on going
Even if you never know my name, ever know my name
Cause it's not my first time
And it's not gonna be my last no no, be my last no no

Cause I'm gonna keep on going
Even if you never know my name, ever know my name
Cause it's not my first time
And it's not gonna be my last no no, be my last no no

Cause I'm gonna keep on going
Even if you never know my name, ever know my name
Cause it's not my first time
And it's not gonna be my last no no, be my last no no
