

Not everyday that you find this feeling
Once in a lifetime and you can miss it
I don't need a watch no more
Cause I'm loving her 'till the end of time
And baby I see the beauty of the honesty
When you got those tears in your eyes

She drives a Lexus, and I catch the train
It doesn't matter, she still screams my name
I ain't got one job, and she's working two
It doesn't matter, she likes how we do
Yeah she likes how we do

And baby you can call it fate
I'll call it destiny
Who the hell cares when you're next to me?
Oh, you're all I want to breathe no matter where you sleep
It's kinda crazy when you know you got a diamond
Where nowhere to put in
You are the first girl who can show me love in silence, silence

She drives a Lexus, and I catch the train
It doesn't matter, she still screams my name
I ain't got one job, and she's working two
It doesn't matter, she likes how we do
Yeah she likes how we do

Name, name, uh uh, oh
Name, name, uh uh, oh
Name, name, uh uh, oh
Name, name, uh uh

And she drives a Lexus, and I catch the train
It doesn't matter, she still screams my name
I ain't got one job, but she's working two
I should feel guilty, but she likes how we do
Yeah she likes how we do

Name, name, uh uh, oh
Name, name, uh uh, oh
Name, name, uh uh, oh
Name, name, uh uh
