

Love Again

Frankmusik

I come alive
Yeah it's alright
Open your eyes, open them wide
Now I know why I am satisfied

I got a plan I understand it's in your hands
You are the one who turns each can into a can
I feel so cocky if you noticed
Ever since our first kiss
Now I don't feel hopeless

I think I'm in love again, again
I think I'm in love again, again
I think I'm in love again, again
I think I'm in love again, again, again, again

You're in my head, you're in my heart, you're in my dreams
It's not a drink its not a game it's as it seems
Open your mouth, open my mouth
This only happens once in a lifetime

You got me whole, you got me hard, you got me now
It might be possible, but you 'bout to tell me how
You turn each burn into a focus
How I could I be nervous?
Because baby we deserve this

I think I'm in love again, again
I think I'm in love again, again
I think I'm in love again, again
I think I'm in love again, again, again, again

(I think I'm in love)
(I think I'm in love)
(I think I'm)

I think I'm in love again, again
I think I'm in love again, again
I think I'm in love again, again
I think I'm in love again, again, again, again
