

I can give you shelter
You don't need to feel the rain unless you want to, want to
I'm so glad I found ya
I just hope you feel the same, the same

An endless conversation since our bodies touched
A perfect consumation, something [?]
You held me all together with gold threads at the seams
And this could last forever if there's truth in dreams

[Chorus]

Keep your high heels on, girl you took me to the stars
With your lips of gold, supernovas in my heart
Put your black dress on, can't believe this stroke of luck
You're majestic as fuck, yeah you're majestic as fuck

[Verse 2]

And you could be my savior
I don't need to feel the pain unless I want to, want to
I think I found a warrior
And now the smoke clears, I only see, I only see your face

Keep your high heels on, girl you took me to the stars
With your lips of gold, supernovas in my heart
Put your black dress on, can't believe this stroke of luck
You're majestic as fuck, yeah you're majestic as fuck

Keep your high heels on, girl you took me to the stars
With your lips of gold, supernovas in my heart
Put your black dress on, can't believe this stroke of luck
You're majestic as fuck, yeah you're majestic as fuck

With your high heels on you can take me to the stars
With your lipstick on, supernovas in my heart
Catchin' black dress on, can't believe this stroke of luck
Cause you're majestic as fuck, you're majestic my love

Keep your high heels on, girl you took me to the stars
With your lips of gold, supernovas in my heart
Put your black dress on, can't believe this stroke of luck
You're majestic as fuck, yeah you're majestic as fuck
You're majestic as fuck yeah
Oh, oh oh, oh, yeah
Can't believe my luck, you're majestic as fuck

I can't believe my luck, I can't believe my luck
I can't believe my luck, I can't believe my luck
I can't believe my luck, I can't believe my luck
