

Pins and Needles

Frankmusik

Oh, pins and needles
Yeah
No, They cannot heal us

I watch you cut the fabric of everything I do
You've fashioned all the pieces into something that fits you
But it's time to pull my shoulders and loose it all my waist
These buttons barely hold me you can see it on my face
I'll cary every sin like a rope around my neck
The way of every movement you can see it in my steps
Yeah I've seen to fleck a brightly in people marvel souls
'Cause you just made a human that I don't even know now

You'll only be
You'll only be
Oh, Pins and needles
Pins and needles

I sleep in dreams of freedom and wake to secret lies
[?] what you made me American's disguise
All the shadow I've turned into it's fifty shades of you
You took away my color Now I'm just something blue
But I've seem to fit together 'cause now I have no shame
Our love is simple pattern but I want to complicate
When love there's much destruction then I can't see the end
If I'm tought on every corner is [?] is gonna made me

You'll only be
You'll only be my
Pins and needles
Pins and needles

It's seems I'm too much work
All this trouble just [?] what they've heard
You're waiting at the altar
You're looking for yourself

'Cause you'll only be
'Cause you'll only be my
Pins and needles
Pins and needles
Oh, be my pins, be my pins, be my pins and needles
Yeah
You'll only be my
You'll only be
You'll only be my
Pins and needles
Pins and needles
You'll only be my
Pins and needles
My pins and needles
Now, oh
Pins and needles now
