

Weather Man

Frankmusik

Good evening, everyone. Well, we certainly had some beautiful weather over the weekend. I hope everyone was pleased.
But it does look like it's gonna be cloudy [?] next few days.
[?] current.

You wander away
If there's a silver lining left through the day
That's alright with me
I gotta focus if you're willing to stay
Would you want to even if you could do?
When a mystery is so fun to play
'Cause even though I keep on making predictions
I just seem to make all of the same mistakes

You could call me the weatherman
'Cause rain and thunder's all I have, yeah
You can call, call me the weatherman
You better pack your red umbrella when

I'll sweep your heart up in a hurricane, twisting it up, don't let go
Have you stumbling, tumbling in a [?]
You'll be crying more tears than a tsunami, yup
I'll be the weatherman for you

There's high pressure ahead
But it ain't sunny like you're wishing instead
It's just me with the degrees
I'll get your sadness rising like mercury
I'm your daily dose of info
But something you don't need though
Allow me to be all the gray in your day
And even though I think I'm making predictions
I just seem to make all of the same mistakes

You could call me the weatherman
'Cause raining thunder's all I have, yeah
You can call, call me the weather man
You better pack your red umbrella when

I'll sweep your heart up in a hurricane, twisting it up, don't let go
Have you stumbling, tumbling in a [?]
You'll be crying more tears than a tsunami, yup
I'll be the weatherman for you

I've got you breathing
I've gone over time
I've gone over time
I've got you breathing
You'll [?] shine
You'll [?] shine
I've got you breathing
I've gone over time
I've gone over time
I've got you breathing
You'll [?] shine
You'll [?] shine

I'll sweep your heart up in a hurricane, twisting it up, don't let go
Have you stumbling, tumbling in a [?]
You'll be crying more tears than a tsunami, yup
I'll be the weatherman for you

I'll be the weatherman for you
I'll be the weatherman for you
I'll be the weatherman for you
I'll be the weatherman for you

For you
Weatherman for you
Weatherman for you
Weatherman for you

With night skies and with those skies again, they got the rain.
Do you remember last week?
They got the rain.
