

I Need You Right Away

Fred Hammond

I need you right away
A second later would be much to late
This situation I am facing now
Is to much to face alone
And with your presence lord
Hold me close just like you've done before
I can count on you I know today
Lord I need you right away
I can count on you I know today