

Thoughts of Love

Fred Hammond

You allowed your love to shower me.
With love deserved at least
Your grace and mercy, my shelter from the storm.
And through the night to light appears.
You cause me to sleep peacefully.
And bring rest upon my weary heart.

Most have longed for a love I've been searching.
Love that won't ever leave me or hurt me.
All the time for me you to calling.
Now in love with you I have fallen.
Just to know you Lord is amazing.
Amberly my life is worth saving.
Offering the joy overflowing.
Melody of love you would see me.

At my best, I'm wrong, I'm torn, I'm frail.
But your love builds me up.
Always in need of your heartbeat.
Cover me.
So when my passion sings this praise for right.
I'm offering a greatful heart.
Cause the tears fall down the thoughts of love.

Here's my hearts devotion (I'm offering my)
Sweet an emotion (I'm telling you why)
I'm so very greatful.
With each breath unreveen.
Savior Lord, and King.
Keeper of my being.
My loving Father so faithful and true.
More than life to me.
I adore you.

Your love, the love you have for me is unexplainable.
The serenade of praise.
When Your presence fills this place.
I'm chasing after You.
And my heart is thirsty for you.
You always fill me.

Da da da da da da...

Just to know you Lord is amazing.
I still can't believe my life was worth saving.
I'm offering the this greatful heart.
As the tears fall down with thoughts of love.
