

A Drop In A Sea

Fredrika Stahl

I've seen nothing that hasn't yet been seen
I've lived wishing for every man's dream

All the colours in my mind already have a name
And the lines I draw never cross the frame

Am I them or are they me
Am I you or are you me
Can't believe I'm only
A drop in the sea
Can't believe I'm only
Born just to be

Poets on the silver platter my thoughts reveal
But they were for me to give, not to receive

Painters picture my mind and soul
Leaving me with nothing but an empty black hole

Am I them or are they me
Am I you or are you me
Can't believe I'm only
A drop in the sea
Can't believe I'm only
Born just to be

Believed I was different like you believed you were too
Believed was a way to make it through
