

Fading Away

Fredrika Stahl

Thought I heard his voice last night
I heard him asking "why?"
Thought I heard his voice last night
Then he opened up the sky
I'm yearning for days long gone behind
I'm burning for a truth that can't be mine
I'm stalling, I'm falling

Please help me out
I've lost my way
Please help me
I'm turning cold and grey
Please help me
Don't leave me this way
Please help me I'm fading away

Saw him sitting by my bed
Felt his hand on my cheek
He counted the tears I shed
Then started himself to weep
I'm dreaming both feet on the ground
I'm screaming but my voice doesn't make a sound
I'm falling, I'm calling

Please help me out
I've lost my way
Please help me
I'm turning cold and grey
Please help me
Don't leave me this way
Please help me I'm fading away

Please help me out
I've lost my way
Please help me
I'm turning cold and grey
Please help me
Don't leave me this way
Please help me I'm fading away...
